Gentlemen,

I enclose herewith another list of bids on Wilcox sale, a few are bids raised from my former list but the majority are in addition. Now possibly I owe you an explanation on my former list. I realize that some of them seemed ridiculously small, but all of them are on coins which I do not care very much about but I put in a small bid at a figure which I am willing to pay. This method of bidding has in several instances brought me in coins at a very low figure. I can't tell how it happens but once in a while a certain coin doesn't seem to be wanted by any body and goes below its actual value. There is where I get in on my small bids.

You will see by enclosed list that on such coins as I really want I put my limit very high, and I

Gentlemen,

In reply to your letter of 23rd would say that at the time of Mr Trossard's disappearance he had in his possession about 100 worth of duplicates belonging to me but each and every one was returned by someone who signed as his atty. I did sell part of my collection through the Manhattan Co. but I feel sure that Mr Trossard has no connection with them in any way. I am now buying nothing but proof gold dollars of late & lack in that condition, proof and uncirculated cuts of late specimens to 1857. I am still in the market for vols 2 & 3 of "The Numismatist".
